

SCIENTIST - PROFESSOR - FOUNDER - CEO - INTUITIVE STRATEGIST - SPEAKER

DR. SOPHIA TREVENNA

Dr. Sophia Trevenna holds degrees in mechanical engineering, sustainable urban development, and political science. Her PhD proved that leveraging feminine ways in business increases profits while evolving the economy to be a generative ecosystem rather than exploitive machine.

She began her career as an engineer at IBM and left when her intuition opened and guided her to become a sustainability movement leader, professor and serial B Corp CEO.

Now in her fifties, she is an intuitive strategist to hundreds of CEO's in 25 countries guiding them to 3-10x growth through spiritual alignment.

Dr. Sophia co-hosts the Everyday Magic Podcast. She is a celebrated keynote and has spoken on hundreds of stages and podcasts around the world. She has published five award winning books on intuitive wisdom and feminine ways applied to life, business and intimacy:

Book Publishing Award
